

ITIM GROUP PLC

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

ITIM GROUP PLC (COMPANY)

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Adopted 21 June 2021

1. MEMBERSHIP

- 1.1 The committee shall comprise at least two members, each of whom shall be independent non-executive directors. At least one member shall have recent and relevant financial experience and the committee as a whole shall have competence relevant to the sector in which the company operates. The chair of the board shall not be a member of the committee.
- 1.2 Members of the committee shall be appointed by the board in consultation with the chair of the audit committee. Appointments shall be for a period of up to three years which may be extended for up to two additional three-year periods, provided members continue to be independent.
- 1.3 Only members of the committee have the right to attend committee meetings. However, the Chief Financial Officer, head of internal audit (if any) and external audit lead partner will be invited to attend meetings of the committee on a regular basis and other individuals may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate.
- 1.4 The board shall appoint the committee chair. In the absence of the committee chair and/or an appointed deputy at a committee meeting, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting.

2. SECRETARY

The company secretary, or their nominee, shall act as the secretary of the committee and will ensure that the committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to issues.

3. QUORUM

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two members, and decisions of the committee must be unanimous.

4. FREQUENCY OF MEETINGS

- 4.1 The committee shall meet at least three times a year at appropriate intervals in the financial reporting and audit cycle and otherwise as required. Meetings should be organised so that attendance is maximised. Key dates within the financial reporting and audit cycle might include: when the audit plans (internal, if any, and external) are available for review and when interim statements, preliminary announcements and the full annual report are near completion.

- 4.2 Outside of the formal meeting programme, the committee chair will maintain a dialogue with key individuals involved in the company's governance, including the board chair, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the external audit lead partner and the head of internal audit (if any).

5. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

- 5.1 Meetings of the committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the committee chair or any of its members, or at the request of the external audit lead partner or head of internal audit (if any), if they consider it necessary.

- 5.2 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee and any other person required to attend no later than ten working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members and to other attendees, as appropriate, at the same time. Notices, agendas and supporting papers can be sent in electronic form where the recipient has agreed to receive documents in such a way.

- 5.3 A meeting of the members of the Committee may consist of a conference between Committee members, some or all of whom are in different places provided that each Committee member may participate in the business of the meeting whether directly, by telephone or by any other electronic means which enables them to hear each of the other participating Committee members addressing the meeting, and if he so wishes, may address all of the other participating Committee members simultaneously.

6. MINUTES OF MEETINGS

- 6.1 The secretary shall minute the proceedings and decisions of all committee meetings, including recording the names of those present and in attendance.

- 6.2 Draft minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated to all members of the committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the board and the company secretary unless, exceptionally, it would be inappropriate to do so.

7. ENGAGEMENT WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The committee chair should attend the annual general meeting to answer any shareholder questions on the committee's activities. In addition the committee chair should seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the committee's areas of responsibility.

8. DUTIES

The committee should have oversight of the group as a whole and, unless required otherwise by regulation, carry out the duties below for the parent company, major subsidiary undertakings and the group as a whole, as appropriate.

8.1 Financial reporting

8.1.1 The committee shall monitor the integrity of the financial statements of the company, including its annual and half-yearly reports, preliminary announcements and any other formal statements relating to its financial performance, and review and report to the board on significant financial reporting issues and judgements which those statements contain having regard to matters communicated to it by the auditor.

8.1.2 In particular, the committee shall review and challenge where necessary:

- (a) the application of significant accounting policies and any changes to them;
- (b) the methods used to account for significant or unusual transactions where different approaches are possible;
- (c) whether the company has adopted appropriate accounting policies and made appropriate estimates and judgements, taking into account the external auditor's views on the financial statements;
- (d) the clarity and completeness of disclosures in the financial statements and the context in which statements are made; and
- (e) all material information presented with the financial statements, including the strategic report and the corporate governance statements relating to the audit and to risk management.

8.2 Narrative reporting

Where requested by the board, the committee should review the content of the annual report and accounts and advise the board on whether, taken as a whole, it is fair, balanced and understandable and provides the information necessary for shareholders to assess the company's performance, business model and strategy and whether it informs the board's statement in the annual report on these matters that is required or expected as a matter of good practice pursuant to the Quoted Companies Alliance Corporate Governance Code (2018), as amended or supplemented from time to time (the Code), the AIM Rules for Companies and guidance published by London Stock Exchange plc (the London Stock Exchange).

8.3 Internal controls and risk management systems

The committee shall:

- 8.3.1 keep under review the company's internal financial controls systems that identify, assess, manage and monitor financial risks, and other internal control and risk management systems; and
- 8.3.2 review and approve the statements to be included in the annual report concerning internal control, risk management, including the assessment of principal risks and emerging risks, and the viability statement.

8.4 Compliance, speaking-up and fraud

The committee shall:

- 8.4.1 review the adequacy and security of the company's arrangements for its officers, employees, contractors and external parties to raise concerns, in confidence, about possible wrongdoing in financial reporting or other matters. The committee shall ensure that these arrangements allow proportionate and independent investigation of such matters and appropriate follow up action;
- 8.4.2 review the company's procedures for detecting fraud;
- 8.4.3 review the company's systems and controls for the prevention of bribery and receive reports on non-compliance;
- 8.4.4 review the adequacy and effectiveness of the company's anti-money laundering systems and controls; and
- 8.4.5 review the adequacy and effectiveness of the company's compliance functions.

8.5 Internal audit

The committee shall keep under review the need for internal audit and, where required, make the appointment of a head of internal audit and import the responsibilities of the committee for internal audit into these terms of reference.

8.6 External Audit

The committee shall:

- 8.6.1 consider and make recommendations to the board, to be put to shareholders for approval at the AGM, in relation to the appointment, re-appointment and removal of the company's external auditor;
- 8.6.2 develop and oversee the selection procedure for the appointment of the audit firm in accordance with applicable Code and regulatory requirements, ensuring that all tendering firms have access to all necessary information and individuals during the tendering process;
- 8.6.3 if an external auditor resigns, investigate the issues leading to this and decide whether any action is required;
- 8.6.4 oversee the relationship with the external auditor. In this context the committee shall:
 - (a) approve their remuneration, including both fees for audit and non-audit services, and ensure that the level of fees is appropriate to enable an effective and high-quality audit to be conducted; and
 - (b) approve their terms of engagement, including any engagement letter issued at the start of each audit and the scope of the audit.
- 8.6.5 assess annually the external auditor's independence and objectivity taking into account relevant law, regulation, relevant ethical standards and other professional requirements and the group's relationship with the auditor as a whole, including any threats to the auditor's independence and the safeguards applied to mitigate those threats including the provision of any non-audit services;
- 8.6.6 satisfy itself that there are no relationships between the auditor and the company (other than in the ordinary course of business) which could adversely affect the auditor's independence and objectivity;
- 8.6.7 agree with the board a policy on the employment of former employees of the company's auditor, taking into account relevant ethical standards and legal requirements, and monitor the application of this policy;

- 8.6.8 monitor the auditor's processes for maintaining independence, its compliance with relevant law, regulation, other professional requirements and relevant ethical standards, including the guidance on the rotation of audit partner and staff;
- 8.6.9 monitor the level of fees paid by the company to the external auditor compared to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and assess these in the context of relevant legal, professional and regulatory requirements, guidance and relevant ethical standards;
- 8.6.10 assess annually the qualifications, expertise and resources, and independence of the external auditor and the effectiveness of the external audit process, which shall include a report from the external auditor on their own internal quality procedures;
- 8.6.11 seek to ensure coordination of the external audit with the activities of the internal audit function, if one has been established;
- 8.6.12 evaluate the risks to the quality and effectiveness of the financial reporting process in the light of the external auditor's communications with the committee;
- 8.6.13 develop and recommend to the board the company's formal policy on the provision of non-audit services by the auditor, including prior approval of non-audit services by the committee and specifying the types of non-audit service to be pre-approved, and assessment of whether non-audit services have a direct or material effect on the audited financial statements. The policy should include consideration of the following matters:
- (a) threats to the independence and objectivity of the external auditor and any safeguards in place;
 - (b) the nature of the non-audit services;
 - (c) whether the external audit firm is the most suitable supplier of the non-audit service;
 - (d) the fees for the non-audit services, both individually and in aggregate, relative to the audit fee; and
 - (e) the criteria governing compensation.
- 8.6.14 meet regularly with the external auditor (including once at the planning stage before the audit and once after the audit at the reporting stage) and, at least once a year, meet with the external auditor without management being present, to discuss the auditor's remit and any issues arising from the audit;

8.6.15 discuss with the external auditor the factors that could affect audit quality and review and approve the annual audit plan, ensuring it is consistent with the scope of the audit engagement, having regard to the seniority, expertise and experience of the audit team;

8.6.16 review the findings of the audit with the external auditor. This shall include but not be limited to, the following:

- (a) a discussion of any major issues which arose during the audit;
- (b) the auditor's explanation of how the risks to audit quality were addressed;
- (c) key accounting and audit judgements;
- (d) the auditor's view of their interactions with senior management; and
- (e) levels of errors identified during the audit.

8.6.17 review any representation letter(s) requested by the external auditor before it is (they are) signed by management;

8.6.18 review the management letter and management's response to the auditor's findings and recommendations; and

8.6.19 review the effectiveness of the audit process, including an assessment of the quality of the audit, the handling of key judgements by the auditor, and the auditor's response to questions from the committee.

9. REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

9.1 The committee chair shall report formally to the board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities and shall also formally report to the board on how it has discharged its responsibilities. This report shall include:

9.1.1 the significant issues that it considered in relation to the financial statements (required under paragraph 8.1.1) and how these were addressed;

9.1.2 its assessment of the effectiveness of the external audit process (required under paragraph 8.6.10), the approach taken to the appointment or reappointment of the external auditor, length of tenure of audit firm, when a tender was last conducted and advance notice of any retendering plans; and

9.1.3 any other issues on which the board has requested the committee's opinion;

9.2 The committee shall make whatever recommendations to the board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.

9.3 The committee shall compile a report on its activities to be included in the company's annual report. The report should describe the work of the audit committee, including:

9.3.1 the significant issues that the committee considered in relation to the financial statements and how these issues were addressed;

9.3.2 an explanation of how the committee has assessed the independence and effectiveness of the external audit process and the approach taken to the appointment or reappointment of the external auditor, information on the length of tenure of the current audit firm, when a tender was last conducted and advance notice of any retendering plans; and

9.3.3 an explanation of how auditor independence and objectivity are safeguarded if the external auditor provides non-audit services, having regard to matters communicated to it by the auditor and all other information requirements set out in the Code, the AIM Rules for Companies and guidance published by the London Stock Exchange.

9.4 In compiling the reports referred to in 9.1 and 9.3, the committee should exercise judgement in deciding which of the issues it considers in relation to the financial statements are significant, but should include at least those matters that have informed the board's assessment of whether the company is a going concern and the inputs to the board's viability statement. The report to shareholders need not repeat information disclosed elsewhere in the annual report and accounts but could provide cross-references to that information.

10. OTHER MATTERS

The committee shall:

10.1 Have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat for advice and assistance as required.

- 10.2 Be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members.
- 10.3 Give due consideration to all relevant laws and regulations, the provisions of the Code and published guidance, including guidance published by the London Stock Exchange, the requirements of the AIM Rules for Companies, the Prospectus Regulation Rules and Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules sourcebook and any other applicable rules, as appropriate.
- 10.4 Be responsible for oversight of the coordination of the internal and external auditors, if an internal auditor has been appointed.
- 10.5 Oversee any investigation of activities, which are within its terms of reference.
- 10.6 Work and liaise as necessary with all other board committees ensuring interaction between committees and with the board is reviewed regularly, taking particular account of the impact of risk management and internal controls being delegated to different committees.
- 10.7 Ensure that a periodic evaluation of the committee's performance is carried out.
- 10.8 At least annually, review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the board for approval.

11. AUTHORITY

The committee is authorised to:

- 11.1 Seek any information it requires from any employee of the company in order to perform its duties.
- 11.2 Obtain, at the company's expense, independent legal, accounting or other professional advice on any matter if it believes it necessary to do so.
- 11.3 Call any employee to be questioned at a meeting of the committee as and when required.
- 11.4 Have the right to publish in the company's annual report, details of any issues that cannot be resolved between the committee and the board. If the board has not accepted the committee's recommendation on the external auditor appointment, reappointment or removal, the annual report should include a statement explaining the committee's recommendation and the reasons why the board has taken a different position.
